dhi Ji was born, and where we talk about non-violence, a foreigner, who visited India to learn something from us, was killed by militants on our soil. This is a highly condemnable thing. We discussed that in the morning. Again, today we are discussing the samething about some advertisements coming in the paper and I hope a time would come when we would not have to discuss such things in our country and we would be able to achieve our objective of bringing peace and getting those terrorists isolated from the innocent people. Thank you very much.

Now, Mr. Sayeed has got a Bill. (Interruptions) No, you have to listen to him. Mr. Sayeed, what is this Statutory Resolution? (Interruptions) We have to adjourn for lunch because I have to go to the Business Advisory Committee meeting. (Interruptions)

RE: DEMAND FOR C.B.I. INQUIRY INTO DISAPPEARANCE OF JANAB CHELANNUR MAULAVI

SHRI VAYALAR RAVI (Kerala): Madam, I rise to demand a CBI inquiry into the disappearance of Janab Chelan-nur Maulavi, a scholar in Islam, who was opposed by the fundamentalists. Janab Maulavi was living in Malappuram district and he suddenly disappeared. The people believe and suspect that he had been abducted and murdered two years ago. Fortunately, the Kerala High Court directed the Kerala Crime Branch to conduct an inquiry. But nothing came out. So, the public as well as the family of Janab Chelannur Maulavi demanded a CBI inquiry into the matter. The Kerala Government had also /ecommended a CBI inquiry into the matter.

Madam, Janab Chelannur Maulavi is a scholar in Islam and he was a progressive person. He spoke at hundreds of meetings explaining the principles of Islam. So, the fundamentalists were always angry with him, accusing him and threatening his life. Madam, for the last two years none knows where he is and the people believe he was killed. Such things should not happen and the fundamentalists should not be allowed to have their way, to abduct people and kill them. I think the only way is an inquiry by the CBI. I would request the Home Minister-the Minister of State for Home, Mr. P.M. Sayeed is sitting here; he himself knows that Janab Chelannur Maulavi is a very important person—that the demand of the Kerala Government and the people of Kerala to institute a CBI inquiry into the disappearance and suspected murder of Janab Chelannur Maulavi be accepted and an order should be issued forthwith.

THE VICE-CHAIRMAN (MISS SAROJ KHAPARDE): Shri Pragada Kotaiah. Not present. Shri Joyanta Roy. Not present. Shri Sikander Bakht.
